

Algebraic Structures II

This is a second module in algebraic structures, covering group theory. There will be abstract thinking and proofs but also an emphasis on examples. The module includes the basics of group actions, finite p-groups, Sylow theorems and their applications, and the Jordan-Hölder theorem. Some of the ideas in group theory are parallel to those first encountered for rings in Algebraic Structures I.

---

View Online

Cameron, Peter J. (2008) Introduction to algebra. 2nd ed. New York: Oxford University Press. Available at:
<http://ezproxy.library.qmul.ac.uk/login?url=http://www.vlebooks.com/vleweb/product/openreader?id=QMUL&isbn=9780191566226&uid=^u>.

Ledermann, Walter and Weir, Alan J. (1996) Introduction to group theory. 2nd ed. Harlow: Longman.