

Algebraic Structures II

This is a second module in algebraic structures, covering group theory. There will be abstract thinking and proofs but also an emphasis on examples. The module includes the basics of group actions, finite p -groups, Sylow theorems and their applications, and the Jordan-Hölder theorem. Some of the ideas in group theory are parallel to those first encountered for rings in Algebraic Structures I.

View Online

Cameron, Peter J. (2008) Introduction to algebra. 2nd ed. New York: Oxford University Press. Available at:
<http://ezproxy.library.qmul.ac.uk/login?url=http://www.vlebooks.com/vleweb/product/openreader?id=QMUL&isbn=9780191566226&uid=^u>.

Ledermann, Walter and Weir, Alan J. (1996) Introduction to group theory. 2nd ed. Harlow: Longman.